

DATE: September 27th, 2010

Better Business Bureau® at Fort Worth
Announces 2010 Integrity Award and CEF Scholarship Winners

Fort Worth, TX-The Better Business Bureau at Fort Worth announced today the winner of the 2010 Integrity Award — AUI Contractors, LLC., Fort Worth, Texas.

This annual award is given to a business that consistently exemplifies the BBB's mission of promoting ethics through excellence in customer satisfaction, employee training, high industry standards and community involvement.

In business since 1983, AUI Contractors' vision is, "to be recognized as a leader of diversified construction services, delivering on our commitment in pursuit of measurable excellence, founded on high quality, value and integrity".

Separately, the BBB awarded 3 local graduating high school seniors with Consumer Education Foundation scholarships. The recipients were Sohee Kim and Joseph Sumcizk from Colleyville Heritage High School, and Meagan Reid from Crowley High School. Joseph Sumcizk was the recipient of the Denke Endowment given by Denke CPA PC.

The awards were presented at the BBB's Annual Dinner and Auction on September 23rd.

The Better Business Bureau at Fort Worth is a not-for-profit agency providing education and information on businesses and business standards. Additionally, they serve consumers by helping to resolve consumer complaints regarding businesses. The Fort Worth Bureau serves Tarrant, Johnson, Hood, Wise, Parker, Erath, Somervell, and Palo Pinto Counties.